

Joe Huden – Chair Emeritus, Washington Youth Academy Foundation

Joe has served on the board of directors for the Washington Youth Academy Foundation since 2010. Joe is dedicated to serving the young men and women who attend the academy.

He is a retired Air Force colonel. Joe was also employed by the State of Washington, City of Everett, as a disaster assistance employee for the Federal Emergency Management Agency and was a private consultant on emergency communications and disaster planning. He has other volunteer experience with Lions International, YMCA Youth Guides and Little League. Joe is retired and lives on Whidbey Island.

To contact Joe: e-mail jhuden@whidbey.com.